TESTIMONIALS.
From Mr. JOHN J. MAHON, Capilla del Señor, June 29, 1881.—The dip which you sent me I used according to directions, and I can assure you that it gave the desired result. During four years of practical experience of curing scab in sheep, I have seen many specifics used, and I consider Gilliard's the only one that gives complete satisfaction. It improves the quality and promotes the growth of the wool. For efficiency, economy and facility of application, I prefer it to any dip I have used.
From Mr. JAMES M. THOMAS, Estancia Santa Ines, Monte, June 29, 1881.—Having given a good trial to Gilliard's Dip, I have much pleasure in bearing my testimony to its valuable quality as a Sheep Dip. It destroys all insect life with which sheep are infected, mixes readily in cold water, does not injure the hands, and softens all hard parts. I shall strongly recommend it whenever an opportunity offers. As regards the cheapness, it should command a good sale.
From Mr. Wm. Petty, Estancia Caro, Colonia, Sept. 20, 1881—
"I feel great pleasure in informing you that the sheep dip supplied by you to me under the name of Gillard's Sheep Dip has had surprising results on my English long-woolled rams; it has kept them entirely free from scab after only twice using it, although those rams have been constantly running in a flock of scabby sheep. I intend for the first time to give it a trial with the whole of my English breed of sheep as soon as I have them shorn, as I feel satisfied I shall with that did keep scab out of the flock."
From Messrs Patrick Mahon, junr., Ciriaco Morales, and James Murray, Capilla del Señor, Sept. 18, 1881—
"It gives us great pleasure to inform you that, after giving a good trial to Gillard's non-poisonous sheep dip, we can pronounce it to be the best specific we have used as yet, and we are fully determined for the future to use no other remedy."

HAVAS' AGENCY

Rome, 21st

Both Chambers definitely approved the project of law on electoral reforms, as presented by Mr Depretis.

The new law extends considerably the number of voters, and will look more after the list of scruting.

In political circles this voting is considered a Ministerial triumph, equivalent to a vote of confidence for the Depretis Cabinet.

Paris 21

The Commission charged to examine the projects of Mr Gambetta has presented its informations to the Chamber, manifesting itself favorably at a parcial revision of the Constitution, and advicing to reject the project referring to the scruting of list.

Rio Janeiro 22

Sr Paranagua having refused to form a new Ministry. Sr Martinho, President of the Chamber of Deputies (liberal) had been charged. He organized his Cabinet as follows, reserving for himself the Presidency of the Council, and the Portfolio of Finance.

Minister of Empire—Consejero Sousa Dantas.

Minister of War—Sr. A. A. Moreira Penna.

PIZARRO.

History and contemporary newspaper literature prove that Pizarro is a fighting name. The conqueror of Peru would have returned to Spain in the garb of a runaway sailor but for his splendid decision of character in tracing a line with his sword-point over which he and a few of his followers crossed, to conquer or succumb. Three hundred years have in nothing weakened the blood of the Pizarros, and our Minister of 'Culto's' thundering letters to old Mr Sarmiento show the same metal as the sword-point of the Spaniard who conquered Peru.

When Minister Pizarro's first letter appeared, we all took a humdrum view of the matter, condemning the unmeasured language of such letters coming from the pen of a Minister, but we little knew what was coming, and the tremendous fire that since succeeded—the blow upon blow which Mr Pizarro deals old Mr Sarmiento, hitting him so hard and so fast that he has no time to get up, and then striking out in a free fight, knocking down all those around his adversary, kicking them into the mud, and then calling out for others to come on—shows a pluck that has dumfounded the whole town and won for Mr Pizarro, spite of his rather coarse language, the approval of many who at first censured him.

If we have never read Ministerial letters more censurable in style, so also we have never before read Ministerial letters so refreshingly honest. Sarmiento seems at last to have found his match, and we doubt if there is another man in the Republic save Mr Pizarro who would so coolly tread on the old man's coat-tails. Everyone who has read these letters, which we now give in English at foot, must have felt that spite of all their rude language and epithets, a vein of truth and honesty runs through the whole correspondence, which makes us all slap Mr Pizarro on the back and exclaim involuntarily, go it Pizarro! Mr Sarmiento is, of course, blamed for the whole row, although in truth he has as much to do with the real essence of the squabble as Mr Parnell. The fight, although a free one, has nothing whatever to do with education of which Sarmiento is the supposed champion. There is not a particle of grammar, or nonsense, or learning in the issue, and the great ability of Mr Pizarro is that he has trotted out the old man from his quis, his quacs and his quods, to give genius to a fight that began with double stamps in the Provincial Bank, has since extended to the Cabildo, and before over, if Governor Rocha does not took out, will end in the complete overthrow of the 'Incas.'

THIRD EPISTLE.

B. Aires, Jan. 21st

Sr. Don D F Sarmiento

My poor Friend

Where on earth are you going to, turned into a Babieca, Del Valle holding you tight by the nose and using you to frighten the Moors in the Government? In Heaven's name what do you mean? Can it be that you, like the 'criollos' of B. Aires, are opposing the political evolution that will give a definite organization to the country after so many years of suffering?

It is possible that you can consider legitimate the pretensions of Governor Rocha, who has passed a year of his government in observing the transit of Venus and establishing a 'Casa de Monta'? Do you think it right that he should refuse to accept the position given to him by events which he helped to bring about, in order that he might have the honour of ruling the largest and richest of all the Argentine provinces

What would you do my friend, if you were in Rocha's skin, with Del Valle and the other Aristarchuses of the Nacional in the same boat with you, their object being to frustrate the inevitable laws of history which transform great associations of human beings into solid nations?

Would you stand up in the public Plaza and challenge the exclusive right of the President of the Nation to wear the sash of a Captain General, or throw stones at the Minister of Justice when he orders the National Courts to be installed in the old Cabildo?

Ah! my poor Sarmiento, how slavish the weight of years can make a man, and what a moment for you to remind me of my good brother Modestino?

Beyond the Marquez Bridge stretches an immense territory which will one day be peopled by millions of men. It is that part of the Argentine family property which has fallen to the 'eldest daughter' of our former glories. Fresh glories are in store for her, not those glories which drip with the blood of battles and are adorned with the victor's laurel, but those which drip with Plenty that feeds the children of Adam, and which, obedient to Divine Inspiration, has its home on our vast plains and is borne on every wind, to raise Jacob's tents on them as well as on those mountains whose summits are lost in the skies!

Look at Buenos Aires! Her handcuffs have been knocked off, it is time; but she is still under the brutal dominion of the country boor or the electoral thief, through the Juez de Paz or the Military Commander who can manipulate a successful election. It is a headless province, more unfortunate than San Luis, and more deserted by its own sons than Rioja. The latter has at least some kind of a Government, while the historic province of B. Aires is reduced to an immense territory which neither has nor can ever have any kind of Government whatever under the incompetent domination of its lords and masters the Rochas, Del Valles, Lopezes etc.

Poor Sarmiento! The iron will, the superior intellect that has lectured two generations, the ex President of a great republic, transformed in his declining years into a political manniken, a feeble instrument in the hands of sceptical boys, who laugh at his venerable white locks, despise his authority, and use him as an instrument of their sensual ambition and lust of power.

Poor Sarmiento! Poor friend of my dear brother Modestino! Why do you not die like him, or retire into a quiet and respected private life, surrounded by the attentions due to age and veneration for the honourable scars you received in those sad battles of public life?

Yes, my unfortunate friend, these are the prayers of one who, in taking leave of you now, in the aberration of your waning years, forgets neither the family reminiscences which you have awakened in my soul, nor the services of the old patriot now broken down by age and no longer fit for public life.

Yours sincerely
M D Pizarro

FOURTH EPISTLE.

January 22d 1882

Sr Don Domingo F Sarmiento.

At seventy years of age the mind grows dim like the watery eyes of the old man; both vision and judgment are shrouded, and moral forces give way with physical debility.

Political Science has fixed a term to the life of man in his public career. Thus death in public life precedes the grave, and in spite of exceptions to the flat, Don Domingo, you may in vain pretend that you are not included in the rule; long ago you were buried alive, useless for anything, gnawing at reputations and exciting hilarity, mistaking for political vitality the galvanic movements of a battered and used-up organism that moved at the pleasure of Del Valle, Lucio Lopez and others, who parade you as the corpse of the bid.

They are idle young men, unscrupulous, laugh at the dead and resuscitate them to frighten fools.

You join Rocha, Del Valle, Lagos Garcia and Lopez, because they rub the heat of public life into your cadaverous rigidity.

They who could not stand before the noble pride of Alsina stand before you, enervated in mind, senile and obedient to them in the midst of your vehement convulsions.

They know too well that the nervous contractions of your temper are not energetic impulses of your will. Years have elapsed since you lost your character and have become a machine of Del Valle, who knows the secret to wind you up to paroxysms of to inactivity.

The Republicans make use of you on this account.

Well! you know this party, diminutive and impotent even in the culminating stage of its power and force; you know its birth, history and prospects.

An embryo of crime, it was born of perfidy, ingratitude and treason to its noble chief Alsina, who now raises his mighty hand in the Plaza Libertad as it vociferating imprecations and destruction to the traitors he warmed in his bosom.

They imbibed their mother-milk in perfidy and treason, and the Acts of the Belgrano Congress prove the ignoring of their political apostacy and the condemnation it reaped at its birth in the very sanctuary of the law.

Thus was born and thus has thrived the local party of the province of Buenos Aires, that, in power today, already revolves plans of personal ambition and purposes of perfidy and treason to the oaths taken in Belgrano, Greeks!

And it is with these men that you side, Sarmiento, now the General of the Nation, the constitutionalist, unsurpassed in lore and civic instruction; you offer your services to purposes reactionary or hostile to the definite organization of the Republic in the evacuation of the Capital by the Provincial Government, that lives and wishes to continue living at the root of the tree it is gnawing, abandoning the Province it should govern. Fools!

A Government that is no Government; a Province that is no Province; a government without jurisdiction; a province without government—this is the constitutional situation to which you lend the authority of your name by joining the republican party. Stay away: the republicans, without party, without flag; credo in public opinion.

And these are the men who aspire to govern the Republic some day!

These are the men who already want to secure the official positions of the Casa Rosada!

These are the men who oppose the policy they call that of drums and fifes, of Syllabus and Ordenanzas!

They are perfectly right—they recognize no morals and no laws; they are logical in their policy. The condition of their existence is outside the pale of law and morals.

Sarmiento! you are one of them, and in vain you try to smuggle over Mitre, ashamed to be alone in the midst of such a set. Mitre will not go, even were you to remind him that once bitterly took up the nauseous imputation that is being repeated to-day by that fool, L. V. Lopez, the immaculate.

'What men! ye gdos,'

Sarmiento! good bye. I leave you to your fate with Del Valle and Lucio Lopez.

When you awake from your dream; when the indifference of those who now flatter you seizes you, remember that the brother of Modestino, whatever be your fate in political events, has surplus warmth in his soul for all that is noble and great.

M. D. Pizarro.

FIFTH EPISTLE

January 1882

Sr. Don Domingo F. Sarmiento.

The disease is in its crisis: we have entered the interesting period of the contest: here I am involved in duels. I have just received a challenge from Del Valle, who would not cede to you this right as head of the party.

Tan solo de pensarlo
A mi me da pavor.

I have answered with a refusal. This is teaching by example, Don Domingo. Do you approve my conduct, or do you agree with Del Valle and Lucio Lopez that questions of honour should be settled in duels?

Your opinion in this matter would be interesting: you, who are a schoolmaster and are always remiuding people of your profession as a pedagogue and your duty to teach the people.

Can be used with COLD WATER. Sole agents MOORE and TUDOR. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS AND FALSIFICATION

Well, Don Faustino, here you have a theme for many lessons.

I have already given one to the frivolous youth of the Capital; the best and most convincing one, that of example.

Boys! Bullets do not settle questions of honour; it is forbidden by law, by religion, by morals and by our civilization.

These you must obey.

We must leave the barbarians; we must think of family, country, and of humanity that suffers from that barbarous custom, unknown to the ancients.

You think I preach like a provincial curate.

Don't be ignorant, and hear others you cannot contradict like me—

"The brave man despises a duel, and the good man abhors it.

J. B. Rousseau

"Duels are not an institution of honor, but a barbarous and injurious fashion.

J. J. Rousseau

"The abolition of duels was one of the great services done to the country.

Voltaire

Voltaire and Rousseau were no 'Saints' or fanatics."

Well; hear them.

What do you think of this lesson Don Domingo? No doubt I meet with your approval; and, if not better; then I have struck the nail on the head.

As regards Del Valle's challenge, I may say that you cannot fight with whomsoever it pleases you to attack; there are rules. I might have reminded Pellegrini and Alem of the fact, but I did not care to do so, because.....

I have no necessity of the pretext considering my answer quite enough, although those gentlemen would not accept it as written.

The duel question is terminated: the lawsuit with the republicans remains.

I am coming; but tell your friends to wait for a moment: I must go to my bureau of the Ministry of Justice, Worship and Public Instruction.

On my return we will begin the campaign.

And it is a grand campaign, D. Domingo, nothing less than that the province of Buenos Aires may get a capital and remain in constitutional condition.

There is San Nicolas de los Arroyos, for provisional capital. How that place would advance, how the whole province would be the gainer by the move.

But should San Nicolas not please Del Valle, Rocha or Lucio Lopez, there are many other places in the provinces that might suit.

This is a question of honor for Dr Del Valle. What greater glory could he dream of for himself and his friends, than the foundation of a great city in his birthplace, under his influence, his prestige, and that of his friends?

This is the question, and no other the question is not to kill Ministers, or to be killed by them, which is more probable. The political organization of this capital and of the rich province of Buenos Aires is the topic of the hour.

Republicans! if you are, patriots! to the task! your pledged faith, your oaths of Belgrano are at stake.

Urge them—Sarmiento—urge them since you have so much influence in your party.

Are you unable? Are you a mere tool of Del Valle or Rocha?

Don Domingo, good-by—till another day.

M. D. Pizarro

DEL VALLE'S CHALLENGE

Dr Piza ro received from Del Valle's seconds Pellegrini and Alem, a challenge to fight a duel. Dr Pizarro favored them with the following note—

Messrs Pellegrini and Alem

Del Valle is not a fighting-card. His challenge is a pretext to remove me from my ministerial post, and is a political trap I cannot fall into.

On the other hand, I have so much to do that I cannot afford myself the sad pleasure of killing a pigeon.

Will anybody think I fear Del Valle?

Do you think it yourselves?

This cannot be.

Such is my answer.

M D Pizarro

BAHIA LAND AUCTION.

The Bahia Blanca land auction last week is a matter of general interest to our subscribers in the South. Within the last year or so numbers of Englishmen have settled down in the neighbourhood of the lands sold, and the certainty that in a couple of years the Southern Railway will be extended to Bahia Blanca is perhaps one of the chief causes for the land speculation going on down there.

The Manantiales estancia, some 8 square leagues of land, is known to all Bahia Blanca people as the best property in that district. Although the auctioneer announced Dr. Ocampos as the purchaser, we are informed that the land was only bought in his name but for another party; how true this may be we cannot say, but it is quite evident from the price paid by the buyer, whoever he is, that the lands will be stocked, and there are no finer lands for cattle and sheep to be found in the whole country.

The Nueva Roma lands, although settled on for the last 25 years, are pretty much the same to-day as when Olivieri's soldiers first made their farms thereon. We believe that had these lands been in the hands of the sheepfarmers of the north, they would be worth much more than what they sold for; but South camps, from one cause or other, have been very neglected, and it is only now when the sheepfarmers can go no farther North, that they turn their attention to the far South lands.

It may not be generally known that not far from Curumalan there is a river called the Arroyo del Alfalfa, where the pasturages are so splendid that an Englishman just up from there calls them English meadow lands. Only the other day an Englishman drove his cattle and sheep from Curumalan out to these lands, which are at present as wild and unsettled as nature made them; yet our friend was not very long squatted down, when Señor Dantas, the Provincial Chief of Police ordered him off; alleging that these lands belong to the Provincial Government of Buenos Ayres, and no one is allowd to settle on them. It is to be hoped that since the Chief of Police is so very strict, that the Government will see fit to have these lands at once put up for auction, and sold to farmers who cannot afford to pay the high rents now charged for puestos in the near partidos.

A year ago the Manantiales Estancia if put up for sale would hardly have fetched 100,000$ m|c. per league, to day it realises 300,000$ m|c. and a year hence it will fetch 500,000$ m|c. per league. It is the opinion of the land brokers that the South is now advancing more rapidly than the North.

LIMITS OF THE PROVINCES.

We are in the full epoch of innovations and changes. Like France, in the days of the Directory, the innate grandeur of the country is looming in the horizon, and the ideas of the people are expanding and growing in consequence; as in France, the emancipation from conservative prejudices is sharpening the intellectual faculties of the nation. The people are beginning to see and understand what they have lost by indolence, fanaticism and political strife, how much precious time has been thrown away; how we have allowed much younger communities to outstrip us in all the paths of civilization. It is to be hoped we have at last made our way through the thorny and dense hedge of apathy and custom, and have got into the broad highway of progress, to be soon thronged with locomotives and emigrants.

One of the first grand innovations made by the French Directory, after the Revolution, was the complete change of the territorial divisions of France. Like this Republic, France was divided into provinces, vestiges of the ancient fed eral principalities Like the Cordovese or Catamarqueño, the inhabitants of Bretagne, Normandy, Burgundy, etc, retained with pride and arrogance their ancient name, customs and language. The Directory suppressed these time-honoured but awkward designations, and by dividing the country into 80 odd departments made all the population really Frenchmen. Now that the question of the limits af the provinces is brought forward, let some Congressman or Minister render himself immortal by bringing in a Bill for not only settling the limits, but for a thorough readjustment of the territorial divisions of the Argentine Republic.

Our own vehement desire would be to see disappear all the present provinces and have the country divided into departments as in France, with a simple Prefect over each; but we fear that would be asking too much, at least for the present. But if we are to be tied to a Federal Union of semi-independent states, let us arrange them in such a manner that each shall possess elements of strength and progress, and that all the population shall be Argentines in fact as well as in name, and not some Juyeños, others Santiagueños and others Cuyanos. To do this most of the old names must be suppressed. Even Buenos Aires should change hers, as that name now designates the capital of the Republic.

Commencing from the north, we would suggest that the three provinces of Jujuy, Salta and Tucuman be thrown into one, extending to the Bermejo, and the new province might assume the name of that river. Catamarca, Rioja and Santiago should form one province, with an outlet on the river Parana. This province might have the name of Aconquija for instance. Cordoba and Santa Fe should certainly be formed into one province, if for no other reason than to counterbalance the great superiority of Buenos Aires, Mendoza, San Juan, San Luis, Entre Rios and Corrientes should form other provinces.

We should thus have six Provincial Governments instead of fourteen, and with railways uniting them we might soon hope to see them strong and prosperous instead of demonstreting, as they do now to agreat extent, the truth of Marmol's famous epigram of 'Los trece Ranchos.'

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Guadiana's mails came up on Sunday. We give extracts in our Supplement. The news is not very exciting.

Morally and physically, Sunday and yesterday were the hottest two days ever known in Buenos Aires. Dr. Pizarro and the Sun did it between them. The Eolus of the Department of Justice has let loose a tornado that has torn everything in political circles up by the roots and sent men and things flying through the social air in every kind of attitude that can provoke wonder laughter, indignatien, censure and applause. Nothing like it has ever been seen before, here or anywhere else. The most regrettable feature of the affair is to see challenges to fight 'a la mort' sent by men who aspire to posts of State and who have already filled them. If Dr Pizarro deserves any credit for the way in which he rides the whirlwind that he has so coarsely produced, not the least of it is his determined refusal to fight a duel. The scathing terms of that refusal are a deadly blow to the 'arbitrament of blood' which still lingers in this country, although the most civilized nations of the world have long since rejected it with horror. We give in another column all Dr. Pizarro's latest Epistles to the Republicans.

The General Assembly of the Sociedad Argentina de Horticultura took place at the Society's Rooms 101 Reconquista on last Wednesday evening, and was very numerously attended. The following extract from a lady's letter, received by the mail, and dated Wexford, Dec. 19, 1881, will be read with interest, as it gives news that we have not seen published in any of the home papers:—

"We had the honour of a visit from Ireland's future King, as he is sometimes styled. The town was illuminated beyond all description; as I heard one old woman say—'If the Pope himself was coming they could not have it nicer.' Indeed, the people in order to deck their houses took all they could lay hands on without leave or licence. They tore up shrubs by the roots and cut down small trees. We had none of ours taken, thanks to the place being small and the vigilance of our dog, who terrified the invaders. As to Miss Parnell, I am always so occupied that I do not read her speeches. Dr. McCabe, the Archbishop, was at Rathdrum lately for a ceremony at the convent. When he arrived at the station he found that the parish priest, who was to have had his car to meet him, had not arrived: He got up on a car that was there for hire, but the man immediately ordered him off, as I suppose you are aware he made a Pastoral lately, condemning the 'no rent' manifesto. When he arrived at the chapel (the convent is attached to the public chapel) the organist refused to play if the Archbishop took part in the ceremonies, and an organist had to be sent for to a place ten miles distant. You see what Catholic Ireland is coming to. It was bad enough for the congregation to leave the chapel during the reading of the Pastoral, but it is certainly incredible that Dr. McCabe should be thus personally insulted. I know that what I have just told you is a fact, and also that the Papal arms were torn town from before His Grace's house and that crape was fastened to his knocker. None know how it will end. Most of the farmers in this part of the country would willingly pay their rents, but are afraid of one another and of being Boycotted. Really you cannot blame them for refusing to pay when you read of so many being murdered for paying. We had a fearful murder about four miles from here last month, but the motive was plunder: as usual, no one has been arrested, and I think that fact does not serve to diminish the number of outrages."

The Montevidean police are giving Buenos Aires tit for tat. The life of lottery agents and ticket sellers down there just now is a martyrdom. Several of them are in jail.

There was an awful double suicide or murder and suicide in Calle Chacabuco on Saturday evening, the victims being two Spanish Basques who had a small boot shop. They sent a boy who assisted them to play, and he had hardly turned his back when one of the brothers blew the other's brains out and then his own. As one of the brothers had formerly been out of his mind, and was ever after a little 'queer', it is inferred that he shot his brother and then himself.

The French mail steamer Senegal sails to-day. Mails close at one o'clock.

They had a terrific storm in Rosario on Friday night—a mill, a house and a dozen sheds blown down, and craft in the port severely mauled. Damage 8000 pats.

The Wax Works in Calle Corrientes had crowds of visitors on Sunday. They are very good, so good indeed that ladies and children are pretty certain to be frightened at the painful fidelity with which battles and other scenes of blood are reproduced. We would strongly recommend the enterprising proprietors to follow Madame Tussaud's example and put all the Horrors into one chamber. The Last Supper is a most perfect and impressive work, the gem of the whole collection.

There was a shower of beetles in town on Sunday night. The lamps were obscured by them and they crackled under people's feet on the pavement. We heard several Argentine friends declare solemnly that it was a 'fenomeno de mal augurio.' We hope not.

Parties on the look out for a good 'spec' in land should attend to-day Baltar and Quesada's sale of land at Pescado and Media Luna. A better chance is rarely offered.

Chivilcoy is going in for Pipe Water as well as Belgrano and Flores. The camp is moving. Now, Mercedes and Chascomus, where are you? Step forward.

The gold market, that ruled so hard on Saturday morning, owing to the news of a French crisis, gave way on Saturday evening, due to a leading English house having received a reply telegram, stating that there was no more crisis than ever in Paris, and that the only possible foundation for the rumour could be that all the English papers consider the financial state of the Bourse as rotten. Gold bought on the spring of the first telegram was sold out on Saturday with much difficulty. Some remained over and they tried to get it off to-day under the new umbrella of Pizarro and Sarmiento, but the ruse did not go down, and the Bolsa at the moment is far more seller than buyer at present rates.

In commercial circles not much attention is paid to the Pizarro bombshell; merchants consider that all this sort of thing must be expected until Governor Rocha moves out with his Government to Belgrano, and the sooner he makes that move the better. They said on Change that Dr Romero had resigned and that Dr Irigoyen held the resignation in his pocket.

It was rumoured on Change that Rothschild's bills on Paris are quoted in London at 5⅛; we have not seen the telegram, but heard the news 'en passant'.

In National Bank Shares there was a very strong movement caused by one well known broker selling some 3,000 for end of month. It looks now as if we are going to have an exciting end of the month in this stock. People who hold the stock are not selling, whilst many who have scarcely a share are heavy sellers. We note that one heavy seller on Saturday on the Paris alarm was buyer to-day and refused to sell a share. On the other hand they say that one party is selling out shares he has to receive at the end of the month, in order to pay for Deuda Amortizable in Montevideo. The general appearance of the Bank Share market is one of strength, spite of the tremendous push to-day by some of the bears.

In another column will be found an "avisa" rarely seen in this market; we refer to the notice for a manager of the new bank, The Buenos Aires Loan & Trust Co.; doubtless here are many qualified for the post, and we therefore call their attention to the notice.

The new firm of Huergo & Gaudencio is announced and circulars given round this morning. The business of the firm, as far as we can make out the circular, is the taming in and sale of carriage horses. We doubt not it will do a good business.

There was a difficulty to-day at the door of the Universelle. When the news reached the Bolsa everyone rushed out, as some facetious brokers said it was Pizarro and Del Valle; but it is proved to be a row between two Provincial Legislators. We regret to say that one got a blow on the nose which brought the blood—best of the weather we suppose.

Mr Cernadas, Mr Ricketts, Mr Morton, and Mr Wright, were all warmly welcomed on 'Change on their arrival from Gainza, where the camps are in such splendid condition that they completely eclipse San Blas.

Captain Green, of R.M.S. Guadiana, was welcomed on Change to-day; he has not been in the R Plate since 1875. The Guadiana made a quick trip out, arriving two days below time. The Guadiana will leave on the 5th of next month, when many friends will leave for Europe, amongst others Mr and Mrs Smithers, Mr and Mrs Duguid, Mrs Boardman, Miss Rooney, and Mr Heavy. The Guadiana leaves direct for Southampton, touching at Vigo. The Trent will leave direct also on the 5th March and the Nene on the 5th April; passengers thus avoid Brazilian ports.

We call attention to Messrs Baltar & Quesada's auction advertisement in another column of lands in the Pescado and Media Luna. The auction comes off to-morrow (Tuesday).

At afternours National Bank Shares stiffened and prices rose steadily. Over one thousand shares were sold at 130 for end of the month, and the bears withdrew for a while. Rates for end of February closed at 131½.

We extract the following from the Times of the 4th Dec.:—

"Money has been in good demand to-day, chiefly in the form of loans, for which about yesterday's rates have been obtained. The Bank of England continues to do the usual advance business, in anticipation of the payment of the dividends, which falls to its share at this period of the year. To-morrow the Stock Exchange will be closed until Tuesday next, when the fortnightly account will commence.

"The Stock Markets have been somewhat better in tone to-day, owing to the closing of speculative accounts for the fall on the eve of the holidays. The Foreign and American markets, however, have been exceptionally weak. The funds soon after the opening fell ⅛, but this was recovered later on, the final prices showing no change on the day. Consols closed at 99⅛ 99⅜ for money, and 99⅜ 99½ for the account, and New Twos per Cents. at 99⅜ 99½.

"In the Foreign Market there was buying in the forenoon at the lower prices which have resulted from the declines of the last few days, but just before the close telegrams from Paris began to arrive reporting a further sharp reaction, and this on the eve of the holidays influenced prices, the decline being more accentuated, in consequence of the hour at which the French fall was known. Preparations having been partially made for the ensuing liquidation, it may turn out that the terms will not be onerous, but in Paris, it is believed here, considerable difficulty is anticipated. Prices here are all lower for the day, but the declins does not exceed ¼ to ⅜ per cent. The attendance was small and business restricted

"There were again no recorded transactions in bullion at the Bank.

Minister Urburu's note to the President of the Provincial Bank finally settles the double stamp difficulty; the National stamp is exacted on all obligations that are rendered effective before the National Authorities; the Provincial stamp must be put on those that come within the jurisdiction of the Provincial Courts. This is the best way out of the difficulty and satisfies all parties. The only difficulty now hinges on a right discernment of jurisdiction in cases when same becomes dubious.

"American locomotives in England—English engineers will be somewhat surprised to learn that the order has been obtained in this country for a considerable number of American locomotives for railways in America. They are now being built from the designs and instructions of Mr James Cleminson, M.I.C.E., Westminster, by a leading North of England firm, and are on the true American type, as represented in Baldwin's 'America', 'Mogul', and 'Consolidation' classes, though some slight modifications are made in the arrangement of the compensating beams. The system of compensation is carried out completely so that the wheels must bear with full weight on any road, just as the speculum of a large telescope is supported on Lord Rosse's or Grubb's system of connected levers. It is expected that the engines will show what can really be done by locomotives on the American type built on the best English methods and workmanship, and we shall probably learn how much truth there is in the oft repeated statement that American locomotives will haul a greater load, weight for weight and cylinder for cylinder, than those of the English type."

The esteemed purser of the Guadiana, Mr A Handerson, has favored us with the log of the Guadiana:—

We take the following interesting figures from Mr H Aitgell's Weekly Review of Agricultural Produce—

"Arrivals of the week—

Wheat	320,682 kilos
Flour	917,732
Maize	232,91
Hay	864 bales
Flax	57,812

"Wheat—Arrivals of little importance. Santa Fe wheat in demand. Price $15 notes with tendency to rise. The delay in the there hung both here and in Santa Fe is very vexatious and its consequences are sorely felt. The following sales are noted:—A remainder of Salario and Bragado 8 ar. 6 to 8 ar. $11 to $165/67. One lot Costa, at $ 90 per 9 ar. weighed. One do, new, $180 medium quality. One do inferior, $170. It is said $190 have been refused for new Rosario wheat. Market brisk and prices firm.

"Flour—A rise noted, up to $14 in notes, equal to $30-31 at Boca which price has not been accepted yet in this market though great interest is manifested on the subject of new flour. Old flour, somewhat weak till yesterday, since when increased demand noted, sales at $24 to $27 ar. in deposit. In city, 25-27$ and 28 asked for good brands. At San Juan business has been done at 23-24 but more is asked. Upward tendency noted. Market firm for available lots but rather slack for future and remote delivery. Millers ask 30 to 31 and some 32$. Montevideo telegrams announce a rise in wheat and flour to 61 rls. and 9 rls. respectively.

"Linseed—Heavy rain affected crops. Many contracts unfulfilled in consequence and rejected lots thrown on market. Prices from $6 to $13 on board seagoing vessels, all expense on account of seller. Superior quality worth $14 to 14$."

We take the following from the paper to hand:—

"The embargo put upon the importation of American pork into France in February last is said to have reduced the exportation of pork from America between the 1st of March and the 1st Nov. this year 280,000,000 lbs., as compared with the exportation of pork in the corresponding period of last year."

The report reads :—

Lots 4 & 5. On the afternoon of Dec. 29th I started for your camp. The land is very deep, the soil black and full of vegetable matter with a growth of pasture I have never seen anywhere else, a perfect mat of "alfalerillo" and "trèvol", with the pasto fuerte pushing up through it. Camping that night by a pool of water, I started next morning and beginning from S. E. mojon rode over the camp; it is soft and heavy pasture as I have already described, it gets higher near the west. but the soil black, and good sound grasses. That afternoon I rode until I got to the corner of lot 2, and then to the top of the cañada on your camp Lot 1, where finding water I camped, The cañada is about 2 or 3 squares wide, the camp on the north is very good with lots of grass, towards the south it is more knobby but still good camp.

Lot 1. Both your camps would take fully 2000 head of cattle per league if not more.

THE TRIAL OF GUITEAU.

Philadelphia, Dec. 26.

The disgraceful proceedings of the Guiteau case for several days past have provoked strong criticisms from the American press. The entire country is restive under the imputation that this exceptional case unjustly casts upon the American judicial procedure. The blame is generally put on Judge Cox for permitting Guiteau such licence. A demand has been made that means should be found after the trial ends for formally manifesting the public feeling on the subject. The New York World suggests the Judge's impeachment. Washington telegrams to-day say that the prosecution has determined to take action to muzzle Guiteau to-morrow by insisting on the Judge enforcing the motion of removing him to the dock instead of permitting him any longer to sit at the table with his lawyers. An endeavour will be made to close the testimony this week.

Philadelphia, Dec. 26.

Three Atlantic steamers are so long overdue that they are given up for lost. They are the City of London, from London, on November 13; the Lord Byron, from Hamburg, on November 28, both for New York; and the Henry Edye, from Antwerp for Boston, on November 31.

We have received the following telegrams through Reuter's Agency:

St. Petersburg, Dec. 26.

The Official Messenger to-day announces that the Emperor has directed that 23 lately arrested political criminals, who are believed by the Government to be the leaders or the principal members of the Terrorist Party, shall be tried together before a special sitting of the Senate, at which representatives from the local communal assemblies are to be present.

Warsaw, Dec. 26.

Yesterday, during Divine Service at the Church of the Holy Cross, a false alarm of fire was given by some evil-disposed person. A general panic ensued, the worshippers making a mad rush to the doors. Some 30 to 40 persons were crushed or trampled to death, and about 60 others were more or less injured.

STATE OF IRELAND

Dublin, Dec. 26th

On Saturday night a shot was fired into the house of David Lee, a tenant farmer, living near Cashel, because it is alleged he paid his rent. One of the bullets struck a daughter of Lee's in the head, but the wound is not serious. The Very Rev. Canon Quirke denounced such conduct at early mass in Cashel yesterday, and hoped the perpetrators would be brought to justice. He also denounced the 'No rent' manifesto. Two men named Philip Howard and Michael Barry have been arrested. They were to-day brought before the Hon. Martin Joseph French, R.M., and charged with being two of an armed party who fired into the dwelling-house of David Lee, of Freighduff, on the 24th of December, and wounded his daughter. The investigation was private. Barry was discharged, but on the information of Mr H Jones, subinspector, Howard was committed to Clonmel Gaol for further examination, to be brought up for trial at Cashel Petty Sessions on Wednesday next.

Peter M'Hugh, a farmer's son, was brought up at Mohill, on Saturday, charged with being in possession of treasonable documents. He was arrested for drunkenness, and on being searched a paper was found upon him containing the Fenians' oath. He was remanded.

Mr J D Pyne, of Lixpenny Castle, county Waterford, was arrested this morning under the Protection Act, for inciting to pay no rent.

Mr Coll Macloughlin, of Derry, president of the local Land League, was arrested on Saturday night. Mr Macloughlin and Mr D F Macloskey were, during the progress of the Derry election, brought before the Claudy magistrates, charged with inciting persons to pay no rent. They were ordered by the magistrates to find bail for their good behaviour, or in default to go to gaol for a fortnight. They refused to give bail, and thence the arrest.

Two strange and suggestive advertisements appear in to-day's Freeman. One announces a sheriff's sale, on the 7th proximo, of Mortimer Doyle's interest in 22a. 2r. 39p. of the lands of Dalkey, held for a term of years, at the yearly rent of £88, and the other purporting to be from the tenant proposing to let the land for a ploughing-match on July 5th, in order to raise £100 for the suspects. There is a sentence in reference to the agent, the meaning of which is obvious:—'As he is a hunting man, I wish him all the success that an unfortunate rack-rented farmer like me can wish a gentleman sportsman after any of the following packs of hounds—Carlow, Kildare, Queen's County, or even the Rosceas.'

A special meeting of the Ormond and King's County Hunt Club on Saturday passed a resolution requesting Lord Huntingdon to continue to hunt in those parts of the county where no opposition has been shown.

The language used by Mr Foley, Q.C., the legal Sub-Commissioner, in giving judgment at Naas in a case in which Lord Cloncurry was the landlord, has attracted serious attention, and it is understood that the subject is under the serious consideration of the Chief Commissioners.

The Judges have had a conference to consider the expediency of facilitating the service of land writs, and there is reason to believe that they are about to make a rule similar to that laid down for the Civil Bill Courts, which dispenses with the condition of personal service and will allow the processes to be served through the post and posted on the market houses and police barracks. This measure has long been urgently needed, and had it been adopted long since would have enabled the Government to employ the police and military far more effectively than in protecting process-servers. The Judges have hitherto required that an application should be made to substitute service grounded upon an affidavit to the effect that the process servers had tried to effect service in the ordinary way and were intimidated. The result of the restriction was that many of the riots which have taken place have occurred while the process-servers were engaged in the discharge of their duties.

Cork, Dec. 26

Denis Connolly, a respectable farmer, residing near Drimoleague, was fired at on Friday night when returning home from a field in which he had been engaged in cutting furze. He had a narrow escape, the shot passing quite close to him. The only reason that can be assigned for the outrage is that the man paid his rent. It appears that Connolly with some other tenants went to the landlord as a deputation for the purpose of making an arrangement, and as a result all the tenants on the property paid their rents.

To-day large contingents of military and police were despatched to different places in the county that had been proclaimed. It was reported during the week that on St. Stephen's Day a large body of men would assemble with dogs and guns on certain properties, near Carrigaline and Rathduff, and destroy the hares and other game for the purpose of sending them to the suspects. The Government took action at once and proclaimed the districts. Military and police were sent to-day to prevent any illegal assemblies. At Carrignavar a band attended, carrying a green banner and a pole with a dead hare suspended. It was quickly dispersed. At Rathduff and Greenagh a large number of people came together, but they were scattered, and made no attempt to resist the orders of the police. At Ballygarvan, a race meeting was organized under Land League auspices, for the purpose of interfering with other races, promoted by the South Union Hunt, but it proved a miserable failure.

The chief Land Commissioners in Ireland have issued a notification to the legal profession requiring solicitors in all cases of appeal to furnish the Court with the sheet of the ordnance map describing the holding in question, and also a certified copy of the valuation from the official valuation book. The Commissioners have also issued a warning to mortgagees and others interested in estates on which reductions of rent are applied for, calling attention to the rules regarding services of notice, and intimating that such persons should be vigilant and themselves notify the Court of their interest in such estates, when liberty to intervene can be given, and the Court may order the proper service and all necessary notices in the proceedings.

Yesterday an immense crowd of people, accompanied by men on horseback and dogs, assembled at Knockacree, Tipperary for the purpose of fox-hunting. The various contigents were headed by Land Leaguers. The processionists, wearing green favours and accompanied by bands and banners, marched to Knockacree-green, a famous fox covert. The police were quite unable to prevent the gathering.

To the Editor of the Times

Sir,—The accompanying document is this week being distributed by the Roman Catholic priests in Ireland. Comment upon the state of Ireland which is likely to be produced by the circulation of a Roman Bishop's opinions, backed by a course of sermons to an ignorant population, is needless.

Yours faithfully,

An Irishman

December 24.

"Land the Common property of all.

"From the Most Rev. Dr. Nulty's letter to the clergy and laity of the diocese of Meath 1881.

"The land of every country is the common property of the people of that country, because its real owner—the Creator who made it—has transferred it as a voluntary gift to them. 'Terram autem dedit filiis hominum. (The earth he hath given to the children of men). Now, as every individual, in very country, is a creature and child of God, and as all His creatures are equal in His sight, any settlement of the land of this or any other country that would exclude the humblest man in this or that country from his share of the common inheritance would not only be an injustice and a wrong to that man, but would, moreover, be an impious resistance to the benevolent intentions of his Creator.

Bishop of Meath."

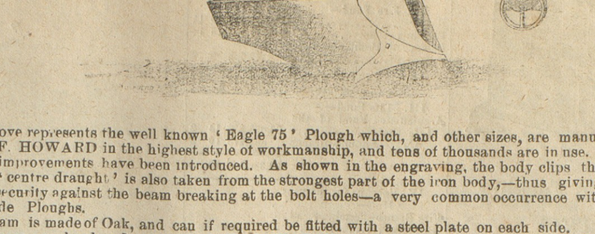
HOWARD'S IMPROVED AMERICAN PLOUGHS



The above represents the well known 'Eagle 75' Plough which, and other sizes, are manufactured by J. & F. HOWARD in the highest style of workmanship, and tens of thousands are in use. Several manifest improvements have been introduced. As shown in the engraving, the body clips the beam, and the 'centre draught' is also taken from the strongest part of the iron body,—thus giving an additional security against the beam breaking at the bolt holes—a very common occurrence with American made Ploughs.

The beam is made of Oak, and can if required be fitted with a steel plate on each side.

The shares are hardened upon J. & F. HOWARD'S well known patented water-chill process, which renders them not only tough and hard, but ensures their wearing better and longer than made when by any other process.

Prices of the various sizes, Nos. 19, 19½, 25, 26, 55, 75, &c., sent on application.

The above Machines kept in Stock by the Principal Hardware Merchants.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne

(Ex Army Medical Staff)

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan. 5th 1880. "To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London "Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
